ATTORNEY-GENERAL P. C. KNOX

Kimura Will Not Be Hanged

ACTING GOVERNOR ATKINSON COMMUTES THE SENTENCE TO LIFE IMPRISONMENT—A CASE IN WHICH THE SUPREME COURT DECLARED THAT POINTS RAISED WERE FOR EXECUTIVE CONSIDERATION.

Acting Governor A. L. V. Atkinson this morning commuted the sentence of Murderer Kimura to imprisonment for life. Kimura was under sentence to be hanged for the murder on a woman at Wailua about two years ago. He cut her throat under an agreement that both should die together, according to some of the testimony. There were mitigating circumstances which led to executive clemency.

In sustaining the trial in the lower court the Supreme Court intimated that the case was a proper one for executive clemency. The legal points raised were held to be ineffective and the verdict and sentence were affirmed, but the decision of the higher court said that points raised were such might appeal to the executive power.

In view of his coming departure Governor Carter referred the matter to Atkinson, and the latter made an investigation into the case. He stated this morning that he had come to the conclusion that the case was one in which it was proper to grant the commutation, and the necessary order was therefore made. Kimura was without counsel and practically without friends. His case spoke for itself and he got the commutation without any particular efforts being made in his behalf.

GEAR SENT FOR SOMETHING COLD

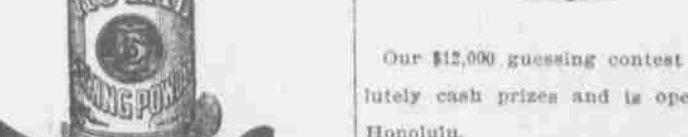

Judge Gear sent for some ice this afternoon on reading in the first edition of The Star about the lack of cold water for thirsty jurors and others. There is a general howl among the jurymen and others over the lack of ice water. The Judiciary building is a hot place, and all the courtrooms have is a large container each full of warm water.

Up to very recently the building had many places where ice water was obtainable. Now there are none in the courts and in the clerks' office there is only water partially cooled by being kept in an ice box tank. On hearing reading of this state of affairs Judge Gear sent his bailiff out with ten cents, instructing him to help the Territory out, and get something cold.
